Registration Tags Become Rule With First Full Week of Classes

Registration of automobiles and the location of parking areas, approved last summer by the Board of Regents, became effective Monday, September 15.

Any College or Horace Mann student operating an automobile on the campus must have registered his car, secured a tag showing registration and have it displayed on the rear window of his car, and park the car in the designated area. The colors of the decals must coincide with the colors of the signs in each parking area.

Records are kept of the permits by the student's name and parking lot. This information is available to the Campus Police. Rules are being enforced by the Student Court as well as the Campus Police.

No warning tickets are to be issued.

Four Rules to Be Followed

Four rules that must be followed are the following: (1) The decal must be placed on the rear window of the car. (2) Park only in the area designated. (3) If you dispose of your car or exchange cars, have the permit cancelled by informing the Business Office. (4) Permits are not transferable, and no duplicate will be issued without charge.

Violators must pay their fines to the Business Office within 48 hours or sign with the Student Senate office, if they desire, within 48 hours to plead their case before the Student Court.

Students to Appear Before Court

Students failing to pay fines shall appear before the Student Court at the first regular meeting of the court or the following regularly scheduled meeting of the court, provided the violation occurred after Thursday, 12:00 p. m., prior to the first scheduled hearing and/or the student desires to plead his case.

Failure to pay the fine or appear before the Court will result in the case's being turned over to the Maryville City police.

Student court shall meet every Friday at 7:30 a. m. in the upper Lakeview Room of the Union building.

Students Choose New Class Leaders

New officers of the Sophomore class who were elected last Friday are Dave Hargrave, president; Barbara Burgess, vice-president; Dick Popp, secretary; and Barrie Parks, treasurer.

Newly elected officers of the Junior class are Ed Kavanaugh, president; Leland Jackson, vice-president; Carolina DeBow, secretary; and Margaret Boyd, treasurer.

The new officers of the Senior class are Bob Severson, president; Bob W. James, vice-president; Lovell Hunziger, secretary; and Vernie Ford, treasurer.

Nominations were made for senior senators at the meeting of the Senior class. They are Jim Mitchell, Don Eklund, and Don Beeson. The nominated junior senators are Donna Sue Jones and Nossrat Shilati.

Important

All freshmen and all six-months veterans who are entering college for the first time this semester are required to enroll in a freshman orientation course. Any freshman who is not attending such a class should see the Dean's secretary immediately for assignment.

Student Teachers To Hold Seminars

Four more student teachers' seminars are planned for this semester, the education department announces. The next meeting will be October 9, with others to be held on October 30, December 4, and January 15.

All meetings will be held at 4 p. m. on the scheduled Thursdays in the Horace Mann auditorium unless otherwise announced.

All student teachers and supervising faculty are expected to attend each of the meetings. Faculty members of the College are especially invited to attend the seminars, as well as students in education classes and students who have completed their student teaching.

Group discussions of "Problems in Teaching" will be held at the October 9 meeting. Miss Chloe Millikan will conduct the discussion for elementary school teachers on the problems of elementary teaching in the Pre-School room. Mr. H. R. Dieterich will discuss problems of secondary teachers in the Horace Mann auditorium.

Postmaster Asks Attention to Stamps

Many college students have been trying to send first class letters in air mail envelopes. Have you? If so, your letter was probably returned and was thus given a 24 hour delay. Or perhaps the person to whom you sent the letter is now short a few pennies.

"Your mail service will be greatly improved if you will always remember to use an air mail stamp on an air mail envelope and a four-cent stamp on a regular first class envelope," said Postmaster Fields of the Maryville Post Office.

Dr. Wells to Represent College at Inauguration

Dr. Eugene Wells, Womelsdorf, Pennsylvania, class of 1931, will be the official delegate of the College at the inauguration of Dr. Kaare Roald Bergethon as president of Lafayette College, Easton, Pennsylvania.

Dr. Bergethon will be inaugurated Saturday, October 18.

Dame Nature Slows Construction Work On Two Buildings

Dame Nature, 1958, will never win a popularity contest among construction workers laboring on the two new State College buildings.

"This is the worst year for building since 1951," complained Mr. Farrell Weddle, Superintendent for the L. J. Largen Construction Co., Kansas City. "We've been plagued with rain and mud since we started."

Basement Is Trouble Spot

Mr. Weddle, in charge of construction work on the new Health and Physical Education building, reports that he is running six weeks to two months behind schedule. Although the foundation is completed and most of the structural steel is up, it has been impossible to level the basement area.

The ground around the new structure is tiled, allowing little of the water to escape from within the basement. Pumps and shovels have been used in an attempt to remove the water. According to Mr. Weddle, basement work will be abandoned temporarily and his 50 to 60 man crew will concentrate on laying bricks up the outside frame of the structure.

Classroom Building Progresses

The outside shell of the new State College classroom building, southeast of the Union, is expected to be completed by October 15, according to Mr. Rod Thomas, Superintendent, Thomas Construction Co., St. Joseph and Maryville.

Heavy rains have also held up progress for Mr. Thomas. On rainy days the 50 to 75-man Thomas crew has been engaged in placing door frames for future first floor classrooms. Construction of the classroom building began in mid-March.

NOTICE

Bob Owens, student body president, announces that all requests for concessions at the Homecoming football game must be in his hands by 1 p. m. tomorrow.

In case of duplicate requests, the Student Senate will decide which organization shall have the concession by drawing.

Henry L. Scott, piano-humorist, will appear in a return engagement at the College auditorium, October 6, at 10:00 a. m. This is Scott's third appearance here, according to Dr. Sterling Surrey, chairman of the assembly committee.

In his Broadway show, "Concerto for Fun," Scott will use piano, pantomime, and humor. Scott, originator and pioneer of concert humor and hilarious virtuoso of the piano, has brought pantomime to a high degree of perfection worthy of the place he will give it in this assembly.

Scott's musical training is almost entirely classical, as it should be, while much of his ability and gift for swing interpretation has developed through a keen ear which enables him to imitate the styles of top flight pianists in the popular field.

Henry L. Scott makes his audience a part of his show. Scott likes his audiences and finds it difficult to perform before movie and television cameras, as he feels that he loses that all-important element, the eyes, ears, and laughter that means people are having a good time.

Those who like the boogie-woogie, rumbas, tangos, and swing playing straight, will get some "eight to the bar" samples when Henry L. Scott comes here, Monday, in his show, "Concerto for Fun."

Two Seniors Head Planning Groups For October 24-25

Quit Your Griping, Freshmen!

One of the oldest and most useful traditions of NWMSC is that of freshman initiation. In years gone by hundreds of students have become full-fledged upperclassmen under the auspices of the lettermen.

Perhaps it would be wise to point out the purposes of initiation. The general aims are two-fold—first, to unite the freshman class and promote class spirit, and second, to foster interest in the Bearcats and further school spirit among all classes. A third result, though not a formal aim, is the undisputed fact that the little green beanie is a tremendous equalizer.

Despite these high sounding values, the Monday-Thursday sessions of Kangaroo Court have been called by some the "twice weekly exhibition of upperclass stupidity." This could easily be so.

What many freshmen don't stop to remember is that the upperclassmen, including the lettermen, had to face the same music.

This year's frosh class has yet to drink raw eggs, eat whole lemons, and trace their footsteps from the Ad building to Horace Mann. Neither have they used their noses to push peanuts down the front walk, or run three-legged races with their legs taped from the knees to the ankles.

So relax, Freshmen! The Student Senate, that guardian angel of freshman pride, still holds the reins, and will stop the stage if it gets to going too fast!

Marching Band Needs Power

The Northwest Missouri State College marching band, because of the great increase in enrollment this year, should have a great many more students performing in it.

A school the size of NWMSC should have at least 60 students in the marching band. Yet, the band at present has only 34 members.

Every musician on campus should hold himself responsible for supporting the marching band. After all, a marching band is part of football games and a major part of team support. The marching band always lends itself to the color and excitement of a game.

Many students have the misconception that a great deal of talent is required in order to be in a marching band. The only requirement is that the student play an instrument.

Although the 34 members of the band are doing a very good job, many additional members are needed if the band is going to do anything spectacular. It still isn't too late to join the marching band and support NWMSC.

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

The Stroller . . .

While strolling into the Northwest Missouri office, the Stroller noticed the vast amount of light and found out new light fixtures had been installed. The question left unanswered is what kind benefactor supplied the welcome light, but thanks come from the newspaper staff.

The Stroller has heard about the overcrowded conditions in Residence Hall, but don't give up in despair, girls, the new dorm will be finished soon.

The Stroller is wondering which instructor took one of his classes to the pond to hunt for specimens of the insect family, and having before hand expressed his wishes to the students not to tear the nets, proceeded to tear a hole through the bottom of the net he was using!

In the Den the Stroller overheard the lament from four boys at a table near by about the privileged workmen who roam through the halls in the girls' dorm and were wondering why they couldn't have the same privilege.

Various hair styles have attracted the Stroller and he wonders whether the white streaks are natural, part of initiation, or the rage.

The Stroller wishes everyone at Northwest Missouri State College a good year.

Freshmen Hope For Early Freedom

By now the freshmen are beginning to wonder when they will be able to shed their beanies and signs, the distinguished trademark of a freshman.

Walkout Day is the day of liberation, the day when green beanies, signs, and buttoning to upperclassmen is over, the day of freedom from Kangaroo Court.

Walkout Day is a day of fun. It begins early in the morning with the ringing of the bell. Soon the freshmen are making their merry way to the courthouse in Maryville for a final Kangaroo Court session. After coming back to the campus a few games of "skill" are held between the freshmen and "M" Club members. After a picnic lunch at the cafeteria the group again goes back to Maryville. They are entertained by a movie and variety show. In the evening a Walkout dance is held, and freshmen may attend without their beanies.

No one knows for certain when Walkout Day will be held. But relax, freshman, for it will be held. At least, it has always been held before this year.

Teacher May Need To Employ Butler

"Have you ever tried to make a bed with only one hand?" This is the lamenting query of Dr. Berndt Angman who broke his right arm several weeks ago while crossing one of Maryville's streets.

Dr. Angman, who does his own housekeeping, finds his predicament rather difficult both at home and in the classroom.

"Since I can't write on the blackboard," he laughs, "my students can no longer use my poor handwriting as an excuse!"

The break is mending nicely, and the professor expects to be rid of his sling in another week.

Biology Professor Tries New Fashion

Mr. Myles Grabau, of the biology department, had the rare experience of being told by a farsighted professor of the social science department that he was wearing two socks which were not alike.

Perhaps 6:00 a.m. is too early in the morning for Mr. Grabau to be aroused from his slumber. Or is it simply that Mr. Grabau is starting a new fad!

Band Holds Camp Orientation Week

Band camp was held on September 8-10 this year. The program was scheduled around freshman orientation and lasted only these three days.

Although band camp didn't last as long this year as it has previously, the band practiced for approximately three hours each of the three days. The main purpose of band camp was to acquaint the students with the workings of a college band and to help them organize more quickly. Director Earle I. Moss said that of the thirty-six students who attended band camp, thirty-four remain in the band.

Several features of interest are being added to the marching band. One outstanding change will be the new drum major, Vick Anderson, who is replacing Richard Jenkins.

Another addition will be an ancient Swiss art known commonly today as flag twirling. The four flag twirlers are Mary Edwards, Merle Hornback, Sharon Reis, and Judy Grant. The band will have one baton twirler, Jody Newcomer. Jody will also be performing several new routines with a fire baton.

Although Mr. Moss would like to have a much larger band, he stated that the students seem extremely interested in marching band and are doing a very good job.

Faculty Gets 'U' After Anticipating Big Fall Enrollment

Last summer faculty members on the College staff tried to anticipate how much larger the enrollment would be this year and ordered texts to cover the shortage. They are still short several texts, but were able to fill the demand for texts to a greater capacity than ever before.

Mr. James Johnson, head of the Library, said there were ten thousand books issued during the week of registration.

The text book room will be open Monday through Friday from 8:45 to 9:45 a.m. Students who can not come at that hour may be helped in the Browsing Room at another time.

The Library hours Monday through Thursday will be from 8:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. and from 7:00 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. On Friday the Library hours are from 8:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. Saturday the Library hours are from 9:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

Books may be checked out of the reserve room for the weekend on Friday or Saturday an hour before closing time. These books are due the following Monday at 9:00 a.m. Mr. Johnson suggested that students who study at the Library do it in the morning or afternoon, as it is crowded in the evening. Better service may be rendered during the day.

Enroll Now in Reading Improvement Program Foundation for Success

Upperclassmen—including the Beanies too—want maximum individual success in their college work. Such a goal is not the result of accident or chance. It is the result rather of serious disciplined effort and a combination of personal characteristics and life conditions which make success possible.

Are you a "Fritterer," a Brain without work habits, who carries one or two subjects and drags the rest? If you did not have to study in high school, you will at first have difficulty here in daily application. If you, as an honor student, rarely studied and, if you continue as in high school just to listen in class and to cram before exams, you can expect to drift to the bottom of this college group. The reason is that the lower fifths of the high school students are not on this Campus to fill up the bottom of the class, to form a cushion for you, and to make "you look good."

It is difficult, often impossible, for a student to do his best work without the following positive characteristics and conditions:

- A strong desire to succeed
- Satisfactory vision and hearing
- Healthful living habits
- Personal security
- Pleasant, varied relationships with other people
- Clear vocational and educational objectives
- Appropriate capacity for academic work and for the life work chosen
- Freedom from disturbing personal problems
- Good living and working conditions
- Adequate background and preparation for present tasks
- Appropriate purposes in reading and reading study skills for successful achievement.

If you wish to increase the possibility of doing your best college work, it may be necessary for you to give attention to some of the items listed. For example, you may need to make a more definite decision concerning your life work, or see an eye specialist for examination and correction of poor vision.

A part of the contribution which Education 8 can make to your development is in assisting you to solve problems which may be preventing you from doing your best work.

Dr. Jones Speaks on 'Truth' At Opening College Assembly

President J. W. Jones, principal speaker at the first assembly of the college year, Wednesday, September 17, stressed the value of a college education in his talk.

He quoted John 8:32, where Jesus told a group of Jews, "If you would continue in my work, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth."

The truth, according to Dr. Jones, is what a college education should help one to know. One must become "an educated person with an ever broadening cultural outlook, trained to think, to meet the problems of this complex world."

"What will such an education do for you?" The answer to this, the president pointed out, is found in the motto carved over the main entrance to the Administration building.

Students Sing the Prayer

At the close of his address, Dr. Jones asked the assembly to join in the singing of the Lord's Prayer. At the words of dedication, as the president described the closing words of the prayer, the hundreds of students rose to their feet and sang "for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever," the impressive ending of the Prayer.

Mr. Gilbert Whitney led the singing, accompanied by Mr. Glen Stewart at the organ.

Student President Opens Assembly

Bob Owens, student body president, opened the assembly and introduced Dr. Jones, who presented the Inter-Fraternity and Panhellenic scholarship awards to Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity and Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority, respectively.

President Owens then introduced Dr. Ralph Hicks, pastor of the Methodist Church and president of the Maryville Ministerial Fellowship.

Dr. Hicks Greeted Students

Dr. Hicks greeted the students and welcomed them to the Maryville churches. He then introduced the other members of the Ministerial Fellowship who were present. They were Fr. Richard Sallee, St. Patrick's Catholic Church; Rev. Charles Sanders, Episcopal Church; Rev. Howard Judah, First Baptist Church; Rev. Ray Gass, associate pastor and youth director of the Methodist Church; and James McIntyre, associate pastor of the Christian Church.

Fr. Sallee gave a brief talk stressing the importance of religion in a college career. A student should grow not only mentally and physically, but also morally and religiously, he said.

Announces Enrollment Record

Following Fr. Sallee's address, President Jones spoke. The president's opening remark was that the 1,800th student had just registered.

In his speech President Jones emphasized the fact that all students are here for a purpose. He hoped that purpose was to gain an education in order to be qualified for the life work ahead.

Green Beanies Are Style Show Tickets

Green beanies, worn by the freshman women students, were tickets to a style show in their honor, Monday, September 22, in the auditorium of the Administration building. The show was sponsored by the Association of Women Students, under the supervision of Mary Anne Salfrank and Patty Hinkle, and their sponsor, Mrs. Elizabeth Luer.

The back to school show was open to all women students and was free to freshmen wearing their beanies.

Eight shops contributed the clothing shown. They were Tober's, Topsy's, Tivoli Vogue, Stephenson's, Penney's, Clara's, Town and Country, and Nadean's. Twenty sophomore, junior, and senior girls modelled about forty ensembles.

Upperclass Girls Are Models

They were Janice Wilkinson, Sybil Sims, Gaye Laughery, Margo Floyd, Peggy Humphreys, Phyllis Schirner, Bonnie Watters, Jo Parent Crawford, Linda Hayes, Edith Eckhoff, Eva Lee Hess, Betty White, Donna Sue Jones, Glenda Nichols, Marcia Harris, Dorothy Evans, Sue Lynn, Gail Johnson, Wanda Russell, and Marcia Williams.

Others who helped with the evening's entertainment were piano music, Kathryn Bay; narration, Sandra Bill; stage decorations, lights, make-up, Kay Reid.

Four Handle Tickets

Ticket sales were under the supervision of Marilyn Cox, Lovell Hunziger, Peggy Lockridge, and Kay Jean Noel. Flowers for the stage decoration were supplied by Maryville Florists.

Mr. E. C. Walker, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, gave a welcoming address and presided at the drawing, which took place at the end of the show, for a five-dollar gift certificate given by Clara's, a surprise gift from Tober's, a Ship N' Shore blouse from Stephenson's, a five-dollar gift certificate from Topsy's, a gift certificate for a Shapely Classic blouse from Nadean's, a box of 75-gauge nylons from Penney's, stretch nylon gloves from Town and Country, and a surprise gift from Tivoli Vogue.

One hundred twenty-one education majors have begun their first semester of practice teaching. All but three of these students are engaged in "on-campus" teaching at the Horace Mann laboratory school.

Art Instructor Has Works on Display

Mrs. Virginia Hill Dorman, an instructor in the fine arts department, opened an art exhibit Friday, Sept. 29, in the gallery of the fine arts department.

Mrs. Dorman received her degree from this college and has done some graduate study here.

Thirty or more paintings in various media and craft works, including water colors, scratchboard, pastels, sketcho, pen and ink, and oils make up the exhibit. There are surrealist representations of "Faith" and "The Sugar Maple Tree," a modernistic portrait, four other portraits, a seascape, flower studies and many impressionistic landscapes.

One painting that seems to catch the eye is a sketch for an oil painting entitled "Firing Range at Night." The style she used is unique and makes one want to look at it more than once.

Since both her husband and her daughter, Virdean, paint, Mrs. Dorman signs her work V. Hill to avoid confusion.

The exhibit is open to the public through Oct. 11.

Freshmen Crowd English Department

Larger than expected freshman enrollment has thrown the English department at NWMSO into a tailspin, according to Dr. Frank Grube, department chairman.

About 180 more freshmen than expected enrolled for the fall semester. These created a special problem in the English department since all freshmen are required to have English 11 in their first semester curriculum. According to Dr. Grube, the increased enrollment has made it necessary to enlarge the English 11 classes, of which there are 20 sections, over the 30-per-class limit. Many of the freshmen and some upperclassman do not know that English 11 must be passed before one can graduate. According to Dr. Grube there have at times been seniors sitting in on English 11 classes with freshmen because they did not have that course on their schedule the previous three years.

THE SHORT COURSE

Bulletins announcing the opening of the College Spring Short Course will soon be available from the main office. Every year it is found that more and more students are finding it convenient to attend this regular five-weeks-long course. This year, the course will open Monday, April 29, and close Wednesday, May 29.

While the Short Course is open primarily for teachers in Northwest Missouri, many other students will probably want to take advantage of this time, and attend school. A student may pursue College work during any two of three five-weeks sessions held during the spring and summer, and earn credit equivalent to that which he could earn in the regular Summer term.

Students who attend the Short Course become a part of the regular College group, and are urged to join in the regular social and recreational life on the campus. The Short Course comes in the Spring—a most ideal time to attend school, as the campus atmosphere and professional contacts will inspire and provide a great profit to the students. Students who attend the Short Course will have the opportunity of joining the regular Spring quarter students in enjoying the school activities and in watching the campus as it brings forth its spring-time beauty.

One of the reasons for the excellent rating given this College is due to the outstanding faculty members who have unusually broad training and experience in their respective fields. Let us look at the courses and teachers who will be here to teach during the short course. Mr. Cooper will be back in school and teach a course in Agriculture. In Education, we find that Mr. Somerville, Miss Shepherd, Miss White, Mr. Cooper, and Miss Franken will instruct.

Dr. Painter, Miss Dykes, and Miss Burns will be in charge of the English department through the Short Course. Miss Hopkins will teach Fine Arts, while Mr. Valk will be in charge of the Industrial Arts classes. In Mathematics, Mr. Colbert and Miss Helwig will instruct classes daily. Mr. Velie will have charge of a Music class and Miss Martindale of the Physical Education department. In the Social Science department, Messrs. Alexander, Garrett, Cook, and Mehus will teach classes, and Dr. Kelly will teach a class in Speech.

Anyone who wishes a bulletin, or knows of anyone who would like to get a short course program, may notify the main office, and a bulletin will be sent.

Welcome, to our Spring Short Course!

PUBLIC RESPONSIBILITY

"Measles aren't serious. Besides I'm not broken out very much, and I can't miss 'Roberta'. I'll go to the show tonight and then go to bed and stay until I'm well like the doctor told me."

Such remarks as these show a deplorable lack of social responsibility. If you care nothing for your own health, there is still the health of others to be considered.

Measles, mumps, and chicken pox are going the rounds. Because of the carelessness of some students in avoiding the spreading of these diseases, Dr. Anthony, College physician, has suggested some simple health rules for everyone to follow.

Chicken pox, mumps, and measles have an incubation period of, generally, from 18 to 21 days. That means that there will be that many days between the time when you have been exposed and the time when you may have the disease yourself. These diseases are most contagious in the early stages of the disease.

The symptoms are similar for all three: a slight fever, soreness in the muscles; cold; and in cases of measles and chicken pox, the appearance of a rash.

At the first sign of any of these symptoms, take the following simple precautions your College doctor advises: Avoid drafts, keep up a good body elimination, stay in bed and keep warm. And do consider your neighbor. While you have a disease you expose everyone with whom you come in contact.

FORMER BEARCATS AMONG CHAMPIONS

By recent daily papers, it is noticed that two former Maryville Bearcats are on the National A. U. Championship basketball team, the Kansas City Southern Stage Liners. This team defeated a strong McPherson, Kansas, basketball quintet in the National Tournament Finals in Denver, Colorado, last Saturday night.

"H" Fischer and Leo Praisewater are the two former Bearcat basketball stars to which we refer. The congratulations of the entire student body go out to these two great players and their team for their accomplishments in Denver, for, by the box score of the final game of the series, it is noticed that the Liners were victorious, 45-26. Of this total Fischer scored three field goals and three free throws—a total of nine points, and Praisewater tallied three points through free throws.

When the Liners met the Bearcats on the local court several weeks ago, everyone had to admit that the Kansas City boys had a team, that worked almost like a clock, and that indeed, it was a great quintet. In that game, however, the Liners were not victorious by the margin that they were last Saturday night—which makes us think what our local boys might have done had they not "almost" won several of their games.

RANDOM THOUGHTS

Jean Patrick, Everett Evans, and Dwight Dalbey are, at the time we go to press, at Cape Girardeau debating in the regional tournament of the Pi Kappa Delta fraternity of Missouri and Southern Iowa, making a last effort to win honors debate for their Alma Mater, MSTC. All three are seniors in College this year, and this tournament winds up their college career in this particular arena. The hopes and wishes of the entire student body are extended to these three, and Louise Bauer and Dr. Kelly, and may they go far in the tournament.

Harry Lyle announced last Monday night "The play must go on." That was undoubtedly what the O'Neillians had in mind all during the course of the play Minick, because the play went off smoothly as if nothing had happened. What did happen? In the first place, several students who were in the original cast did not return to school for the Spring quarter, and consequently, new members had to be added. In the second place, one of the cast became ill of measles, and, consequently, he could not act in his role and another O'Neillian, Dr. Kelly, took the part Carlyle Breckenridge was to have taken. The play "went over," however, very smoothly, and a great deal of praise should be extended the members of the cast and their coach, Dr. Joseph Kelly.

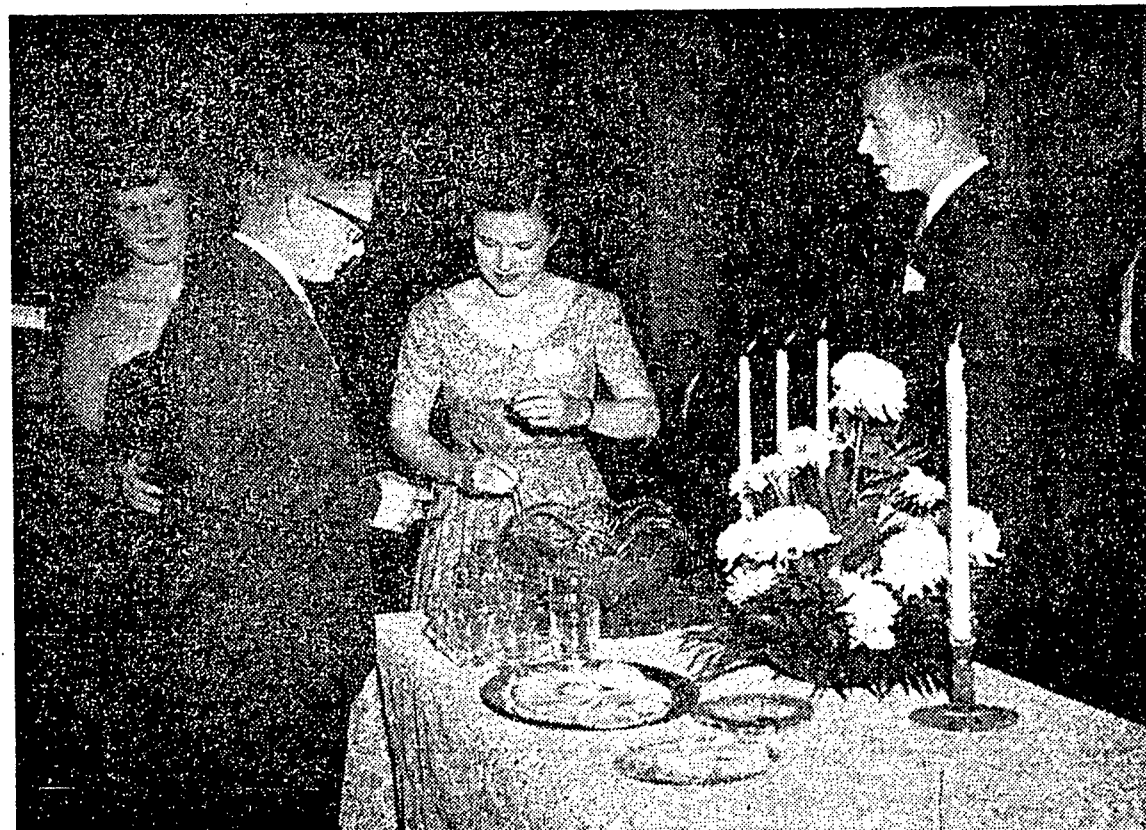

The epidemic of childhood diseases at the State Dorm seems to bear out a professor's suspicion that some of us are still in the diaper stage.

Frogs and turtles are deaf to the human voice—so are the students in 1:00 o'clock lecture courses.

Returning Lettermen to Lead Bearcats in Football Campaign

Back with the Bearcat football team this year are 21 lettermen who are working hard along with the rest of the team to try to bring a successful season to this school.

These men will form the nucleus of the squad and will have much to say and do about the outcome of each game. Below is a thumbnail sketch of these lettermen.

Back them and the team in their coming season!

"Doc" Hughes, Ht. 6-2, Wt. 190. "Doc" is a senior from Aurora, Ill., who will be playing end again this year. A transfer student last year, he proved to be a valuable asset to the team. Much is expected of him.

Grant Hilburn, Ht. 6-2, Wt. 225. Grant, a junior from Kansas City, plays tackle and with his rugged line play shows he is capable of filling this position again this year.

Pete Carrizales, Ht. 5-8, Wt. 170. "Pete", a junior from Mt. Clemens, Mich., is expected to do a top notch job for the Bearcats this fall. A very fast, shifty halfback, he was hampered by injuries last year but now should be in top form.

Vern Bryant, Ht. 6-0, Wt. 205. A sophomore from Balboa, Canal Zone, Vern became a letterman as a freshman. A big and rugged boy, he has the potential of becoming the regular center on the squad.

Gerald Golden, Ht. 5-9, Wt. 160. "Jerry" is one of the fastest and most reliable halfbacks on the squad. He is a senior from Plattsburg, and will be a dangerous man on the field. He should give the opposition many a headache.

Doyle Thomas, Ht. 6-0, Wt. 270. Doyle, better known as "Tank" on the squad, is a junior from Grant City. He is expected to do another good job at center.

Al Brooks, Ht. 6-1, Wt. 195. Al, a rugged junior end, hails from Independence. By his strong line play he is a top candidate for a starting position and by his great defensive work last year will strengthen the forward wall.

Mickey Nardin, Ht. 6-0, Wt. 185. Mickey is a sophomore from Roseville, Mich. He plays end on the team and will be in there fighting for a starting position.

Charles Booth, Ht. 6-1, Wt. 210. Better known as "Togo", he is a senior tackle from Bethany. He, too, lettered as a freshman, a fact which should show his potential as one of the mainstays on the team.

Corwin Ingram, Ht. 5-11, Wt. 175. "Corky", a junior, hails from Mt. Airy, Iowa, and plays fullback on the Bearcat squad. He will strengthen the backfield and should do a top notch job at the fullback slot.

Duane Abbott, Ht. 5-11, Wt. 195. Another top contender for the starting position at center, Duane is showing great promise. He is a sophomore from Creston, Iowa.

Phil Maher, Ht. 5-11, Wt. 210. A rugged guard from Red Oak, Iowa, Phil will be in the thick of things this coming season.

Fred Fuhr, Ht. 5-11, Wt. 200. One of the mainstays on last year's team and leading ground gainer, Fred shows great promise for the coming season. He hails from East Detroit, Mich., and is a junior.

Dick Powell, Ht. 5-10, Wt. 170. A senior from Gower, Dick plays quarterback on the team. He was hampered by a knee injury last year but is expected to be in there fighting this season.

Larry Schweizer, Ht. 5-7, Wt. 180. Larry, a senior halfback from Savannah, is expected to be a big asset to the backfield.

Jack Taylor, Ht. 5-9, Wt. 200. A regular guard the past two years, Jack has a lot of ability. He is a junior and comes from Caruthersville.

Gene Smith, Ht. 5-9, Wt. 185. "Twister", a senior guard from Gower, was elected captain of this year's squad. He is very agile and can charge hard and fast, a fact which placed him on the 1957 all-conference second team.

Jerry Marrs, Ht. 5-10, Wt. 190. A corn fed Iowa boy from Red Oak, Jerry will be at the position of guard again. He is a junior and will be seen a lot on the field this year.

Harold Wilkerson, Ht. 5-11, Wt. 180. "Wilk" is a fine blocker and defensive end. He is from Mound City, and is in the senior class.

Elmer Clark, Ht. 5-10, Wt. 170. Elmer is a very hard running fullback who stands out on defense. He is a senior from Gower.

Alvin Gaston, Ht. 5-10, Wt. 175. Al,

The M. I. A. A. Football Conference standings against non-conference foes is not too impressive so far this season. They have won 4 and lost 7. Conference play has not started yet, but it should be interesting to watch the progress.

The Bearcats lost their first football game of the season to South Dakota University on Sept. 21, by a score of 22 to 8.

The "M" Club members are doing a good job of initiating the freshman. Kangaroo Court is something to see. Freshmen should be happy when their final day of initiation rolls around.

Although Missouri University's football team lost a close contest to Villanova, Sept. 21, they played an impressive game. They should turn out to be a top contender in the Big Eight Conference.

The Bearcat football team will have four home games this season. William Jewell will play Oct. 4 (Scout Nite), Cape Girardeau on Oct. 11 (Dad's Nite), Warrensburg on Oct. 25 (Homecoming), and the final game of the season on Nov. 8 with Kirksville (High School Day).

who hails from Alexandria, Neb., is a senior halfback and will be seeing a lot of action this year.

Due respect must also be given to the remainder of the team and the coaches who are working hard to have a good season. Again, it is up to the students to show loyalty to the team. Try to attend all of the games and back the players with spirit and enthusiasm.

Two Teachers to Attend Physical Education Meet

Miss Bonnie Magill and Miss Kathryn Riddle, of the women's physical education department, are planning to attend the October 3-5 meeting of the Central Association for Physical Education of College Women.

Miss Magill will preside over the Saturday evening meeting. She is also the membership chairman and treasurer of the Association.

Women's Sports to Start Following Homecoming

Women's intramural competition will start immediately after Homecoming. The first two sports will be basketball and bowling. Miss Kathryn Riddle, of the physical education department, will be in charge of the intramurals this year.

Any club or organization wishing to enter a team, or any individual wanting to participate should begin getting teams organized.

New Coach Turner Directs Bearcats

With another football season now under way, the gridders of Northwest Missouri State College will be led by Paul Turner, newly appointed head football coach.

Mr. Turner, 35, received his B. S. in Education, 1947, from the University of Kansas, and his Master of Science in Education from the University of Kansas in 1951. A graduate of Shawnee Mission High School, Kansas City, Kansas, Turner won All Conference honors in both football and basketball. He was selected to the second team in All State football, and received honorable mention in All State basketball.

Played at Kansas University

Turner played regular end under Wayne Replogle at Kansas University his freshman year, his sophomore and junior year under Gwynn Henry; V-12 at Oberlin College on an undefeated team under Lyle Butler; and his senior year under George Sauer in 1946.

He received a letter in basketball at Kansas University under Dr. Forrest C. "Phog" Allen during the 1941-42 season, when Kansas gained two Big Six Championships and a third in the 1942 NCAA Western Play-offs in Kansas City.

Came From Washburn

Mr. Turner has eight years of successful head coaching experience on the high school level at Holsington, Abilene, and Highland Park. For the past three years he has been line coach and assistant basketball and track coach at Washburn University, Topeka, Kansas.

There is no doubt of Coach Turner's competence and ability. He has been putting his charges through extensive practice, using a basically winged "T" blended with a Split "T" and power type of play. It is up to us, the students, to go all out and back him and the team in their coming season.

Ft. Hays Wins Over Bearcats Saturday Night By 13-0 Score

The Ft. Hays Tigers continued their winning ways in football competition with the Northwest State College Bearcats by turning back the visiting Missourians Saturday night at Hays, Kas., 13-0. It was the seventh victory for the Kansans since the series started in 1950.

Despite the loss, Coach Paul Turner said the Bearcats looked much better than in the South Dakota U. game Sept. 20. He said their play, both offensively and defensively, was improved and that their morale was much higher.

It was pretty much the Tigers' game. They had the ball for 62 plays, compared to Maryville's 45 offensive attempts.

Jack Boyd, freshman quarterback, totaled the ball 10 times for gains totaling 23 yards, but he had been caught for losses five times for a loss of 32 yards.

Fred Fuhr, veteran Bearcat fullback, will be lost to the team for two to three weeks. He was injured in the third period when he pulled a groin muscle in a shot at the line. Maryville's passing attack featured passes from Boyd to Raymond Sieckles, Boyd to Ross and Boyd to Nardin.

The loss was Maryville's second in two non-conference road trips. The previous week the Bearcats fell 8-22 at Vermillion, S. D., to the SDU Coyotes.

Cardinals to Invade Bearcats In Memorial Stadium on Oct. 4

On Saturday, October 4, the Bearcats will play their first home football game with William Jewell starting at 8:00 p.m. in Memorial Stadium.

The Cardinals from Liberty, coached by Norris A. Patterson, will be wearing their red and black uniforms and will bring with them a record of one win and a loss for their first two games this season. They lost their first game to Panhandle A & M, 9 to 0, and in their second game came up with a win over Ottawa U., 32 to 26.

If they have the same strong team as last year, they should cause plenty of trouble. Their overall record last year was 7 wins, 1 loss, and 2 ties. They went to the Mineral Water Bowl at the end of the season and defeated Hastings College, 33-14.

It will be scout night here in Memorial Stadium. The Bearcat squad is working hard and should be in top form for the contest. Last year's game ended in a 19-19 tie and Coach Turner's boys will be trying to do better with a win.

The probable starting lineup for the Bearcats follows: Ends, Harold Wilkerson and Mickey Nardin; tackles, Charles Booth and Grant Hilburn; guards, Gene Smith and Jack Taylor; center, Doyle Thomas; halfbacks, Alvin Gaston and Pete Carrizales; and quarterback, Dick Powell; fullback, to be determined.

John Bregin Seizes Singles Net Crown

John Bregin copped the Intramural Singles Tennis championship last Thursday night, defeating Harlan Higginbotham, 6-1, 6-0, in the finals.

Bregin, a freshman from St. Joseph, appears to be a good prospect for this year's varsity squad. He scored 25 of Sigma Tau Gamma's winning total of 148 points.

Higginbotham chalked up 23 points for Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity, who finished second with 116 points. The semifinalists who were defeated by these two were Bob Severson and Bob Fairchild.
